IMPORTS OF SPECIE.

The amount of specie imported into the country during the year ending 30th September last, was $17,747,116, viz. gold bullion, $230,694; silver bullion, $392,843; gold coin, $11,444,189; silver coin, $5,679,390. The amount of specie imported in the previous year was $10,566,414. In 1836, $13,400,781. In 1835, $13,400,881. In 1834, $17,911,632. In 1833, $4,129,675.

It will be seen from the above, that the amount of specie imported last year was only $164,516 less than in 1834. The $17,750,000 of last year flowed in, in the natural course of business.

In the last five years, the aggregate amount of specie imported into this country is over $77,000,000, besides what has been brought in by immigrants. Within the same period $27,000,000 perhaps have been exported. Leaving a balance of $50,000,000 in favor of the U. S.; or an average of $10,000,000 per year. And yet if a few kegs of specie leave us, we have the fidgets at once!—
Journal of Commerce.

He who steals my purse steals trash; but he who borrows my Directory steals that which not enriches him, but makes me poor indeed.

RECIPES.

To BROIL CHICKENS.—Slit them down the back and season with pepper and salt, lay them on a very clear fire and at a distance. Let the inside lay next the fire till it is above half done: then turn it, and take great care the fleshy side does not burn, and let them be of a fine brown color. Let the sauce be good gravy, with mushrooms, and garnish with lemons and livers broiled, the gizzards out, slashed, and broiled with pepper and salt.

To STEW OYSTERS.—Open and then separate the liquor from, then wash them from the grit; strain the liquor, and put with the oysters a bit of mace, lemon peel, and a few white peppers. Simmer them gently, and put some cream and a little flour and butter. Serve with gravy.

Soused TRIPE.—Boil the tripe, but not quite tender; then put it into salt and water, which must be changed every day till it is all used. When you dress the tripe, dip it into batter of flour and eggs, and fry it to a good brown.

INFLAMMATION OF THE THROAT.—Powdered alum, applied by the finger to the part affected, very seldom fails to cure inflammation of the throat in a few days.

COMMERCE OF THE UNITED STATES.

EDITORS :—I have been at the pains to prepare from the last Report of the Secretary of the Treasury, for the gratification of your readers, a view of the imports of the United States for one year ending September 30th, 1838, arranging the countries with reference to the amount we imported from them. It will be seen that the aggregate of imports is over one hundred and thirteen millions of dollars. The exports from the United States, during the same period, amount to a little over one hundred and eight millions of dollars.

Now Messrs. Editors, while we have one or more Consuls at nearly all the different countries, it is remarkable that we have no Consul at HAYTI, which stands No. 13 on the catalogue. — Journal of Commerce.

TO DESTROY MOTHS, or drive them from cloth, hairy tippets, muffs, &c., the seed of the hibiscus abelmoschus (the vegetable musk seed,) should be thinly distributed over the articles, and between the folds of cloth. These seeds are highly esteemed by French perfumers, for their peculiar delicate fragrance. To destroy the vitality of the eggs, which produce the moths, a weak solution of the oxy-muriate of mercury in the spirits of rosemary, (about half a drachm to a pint,) or weak solution of the arseniate of potass in the same spirit, (about 15 grains to a pint,) is employed by those who prepare the skins of birds, &c. for stuffing.

REMEDY FOR POISON.—There is not a house in the country that does not contain a remedy for poison, if instantly administered. It is nothing more than two tea spoonsful of made mustard, mixed in warm water. It acts an instantaneous emetic.

THE BOOKS OF THE BIBLE IN VERSE.

The great Jehovah speaks to us
In Genesis and Exodus ;
Leviticus and Numbers see,
Followed by Deuteronomy.

Joshua and Judges sway the land,
Ruth gleans the sheaf with trembling hand ;
Samuel and numerous kings appear,
When Chronicles were wandering here.

Ezra and Nehemiah now,
Esther the beauteous mourner show,
Now pious Job and David's psalms,
And Proverbs recommending alms.

The Preacher speaks in plaintive tone,
Then strikes the Song of Solomon,
Isaiah, and Jeremiah then
With Lamentations, takes the pen.

Ezekiel's, Daniel's, Hosea's lyre ;
Swells Joel's, Amos', Obadiah's ;
Next Jonah, Micah, Nahum come,
And lofty Habakkuk claims room.

Then Zephaniah, Haggai calls,
Rapt Zachariah built the walls,
While Malachi with garments rent,
Closes the ancient Testament.

Matthew, and Mark, and Luke, and John,
Described the promised Saviour born,
The Acts of the Apostles then
Romans, Corinthians once again,

Galatians and Ephesians view,
Philippians and Colossians too.
The Thessalonians once again,
And Timothy's epistles then,
Next Titus, Philemon appear,
And Hebrews, last from Paul we hear.

Next James and Peter once again,
John's three Epistles follow then ;
Jude next will our attention call,
And Revelation closes all.

THE ANGELS ANNOUNCING TO THE SHEPHERDS THE BIRTH OF CHRIST.

Hark! the skies with music sound,
Heav'nly glory beams around;
Christ is born; the angels sing,
Glory to the new born King.

Peace is come, good will appears,
Sinners, wipe away your tears;
God in human flesh to-day
Humbly in a manger lay.

Shepherds tending flocks by night,
Heard the song, and saw the light;
Took their reeds, and sweetest strains
Echoed through the happy plains.

Mortals, hail the glorious King!
Richest incense cheerful bring;
Praise and love Emmanuel's name,
And his boundless grace proclaim.

THE HEAVENLY STRANGER.

Jesus, thou heavenly stranger
Who dwelt in human clay;
Thy cradle was a manger,
Thy softest bed was hay.

When angels sang with gladness,
And hailed thy natal morn,
Why to a life of sadness,
Dear Savior, wast thou born?

Why didst thou leave the Father,
And all the joys above?
It was because thou 'dst rather
Secure for us his love.

For we had lost his favor,
By sin were all defiled;
And but for thee, dear Savior,
He ne'er on us had smiled.

Now by thy life of sorrow,
And by thy death of pain;
We'll rise on some blest morrow,
With Christ to live again.

Then we will give the glory
To Father, Spirit, Son;
In Heaven repeat the story,
While ceaseless ages run.

In the government of the school, moral motives are brought to bear upon the conduct of each; and no student will be retained who it is found by experience that, by his private conduct or general deportment, he is exerting a deleterious influence over his fellow students. The school is located in a retired and healthy spot in Elizabethtown, and has been in operation for several years past. PIERSON'S
NEWARK CITY DIRECTORY,

FOR THE

65th YEAR OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE,
FROM 4th JULY, 1840.

Important observations to those using this Work.

Throughout this Directory, the christian names of those where there are more than one of the same surname, are carefully alphabetically arranged, male and female, firms, &c. In searching for a name, the inquirer must know the proper spelling. For example, a person seeking for — Pirsson, will not find the one sought for if he looks in the names of Pierson; so also for — Bonnel, he should not look among the Bunnels; and for Conger not in Congar; and for Parcels not look in Parsals or Parciels; nor for Hays in Hayes.

*b. stands for house—n. near—c. corner—r. residence—

ADVERTISEMENT.

From my encouragement last Spring, I had fondly hoped that I should publish 700 copies this Spring: but alas, there is nothing but gloom and thick darkness before us, and I was on the point of giving it up. I then thought, (for the credit of the City, and my own credit.) I would try once more and publish the same number I did last spring (which was 600 copies) and see if the citizens would sustain me, for every days work I have done for the last five years, has been to ameliorate the condition of this beautiful and favored City. I have put up over 1500 numbers and several sign boards, and there is now due me for numbers &c. over Fifty Dollars, which I cannot collect. I have asked the corporation to pay me, and as yet have not received a farthing, or even any encouragement. This Spring I have been at Fifty Dollars expense in making a Runner's Guide, which will (I trust) be found a useful and valuable appendage to the work, showing the names of all the Streets, Lanes, Alleys, Courts, Places, &c. now in use, and where to find them; and also a Chronological History of New Jersey, &c. There were (when the Directory went to press) 110 houses and parts of houses empty.—The changes surpass in number any thing ever before witnessed, viz:—about twice any preceding year. The number of names this year are 4,160, being considerably less than last year; and I am only surprised to find that there are no more gone, for who can live on the wind. There are many warm friends to the Directory enterprise, that fully appreciate my services, for which I feel grateful. But the number is too limited to support any man. Had the times continued good as they were at the commencement, I should have published this year about 1,500 copies, and that would have paid me a pretty fair salary. But six hundred copies don't begin to pay me. We hope for better times. (Hope keeps the heart whole.) I commenced taking the names and alterations for this edition the 4th of April, and the Directory was published the 4th of May, making only four weeks, besides losing some time for want of type. Now, in conclusion, I will say, that I am satisfied that I have discharged my duty faithfully, and with despatch, and the work will be found as near correct, as any work of the kind. Now if the citizens of Newark do not do their duty faithfully, by not only purchasing, but paying for the Books, they may WHISTLE for the next DIRECTORY.

B. T. PIERSON.
